II. Background Info:

Mark Antony & Octavius (Augustus) Caesar: after Julius Caesar was assassinated, Antony and Octavius joined forces to defeat Cassius and Brutus (co-conspirators in the assassination of Julius Caesar). The two joined forces with a third man (Lepidus) to rule Rome. Accounts have Antony and Octavius being friends early on, but later Octavius turns on Antony and defeats him to take supreme rule of Rome.

Acheron: a river in Hades (underworld) over which the souls of the dead were ferried. Similar to Styx. The word often comes to represent Hades altogether. The dictionary defines it as hell. In Dante's Inferno, the river borders hell.

III. Literary Terms: these will be the terms that we use to discuss this act. Please know them for our discussion and your tests and quizzes.

apostrophe: (Etymology = apo [away] + strophe [turn]) When a character makes an apostrophe, or apostrophizes, that character turns away and speaks to nothing. They may speak to someone who is absent, dead, or something that is not human, e.g., Fate. An apostrophe is a type of speech similar to soliloquy and aside.
